Baptisms, Marriages and Burials.

EDITED BY

Society.)*

PREFACE.

DRAYTON Parslow is an example (common enough before the 19th century), of those hundreds of country Parishes, which was self contained and comparatively independent of exterior influences but for one circumstance, it was the home of the Chandlers. The Chandlers were bell-founders of repute and for about a century carried on their business here, and many a church-bell was cast by them in Drayton. The first of the family, Richard flourished early in the 17th century, he died June, 1638 and twin daughters were born to him "Post humæ" two months later. Anthony, two more Richards and George carry on the art craft and mystery to 1726, they are described in the register as blacksmith, and bell-founder. Depressions in the ground at the back of the "Horse-shoes" are still visible as evidences of the pits in which the founding was done: another example that of all the works of men's hands, a hole in the ground tends to survive longest, many of the bells therein cast have been re-run and lost identity in new examples. Edward and William Hall carried on the business for another 30 years to 1756 and then it lapsed.

The Clergy was enjoined to record remarkable local occurrences in the parish register, and in 1720 the Bishop of this diocese (Lincoln) wrote, "the more things are entered in the register the better." This episcopal obiter dictum was evidently keenly acted upon by the Rev. J. Lord, Rector in 1750, as the reader may see on perusing the, at times, very small beer chronicle kept by him. Therein are recorded the astronomical, climatological and other observations deemed worthy of preservation for appreciative posterity: e.g. the elm tree planted by him in 1765 being then four inches in circumference is now a stately vegetable with a girth of eleven feet.

Certain interesting details about Mr. Lord and his family are included in an appendix to this volume, having been copied for that purpose from the Cole Mss. Brit. Mus. (Add Mss. 5830 & 5835) by the

23 April. This Day I Saw 2 Boughes of a Hawthorn Bush which had the last Year's Haws sound firm & good tasted it was very full of Hawes & had Leaves at the same Time of this Year quite broad out the Winter has been remarkably calm & open yet 3 Nights Frost early in the Winter cut off severall tender Plants.
Lettices in general were all cut off by that Frost.

25 May This Day I saw no small Quantity of Haws in the Hedge next beyond the double Quick. the Blossom is full blown the Haws look as fresh as at Xmas they are very common so this Year, & have been remarked by several People old Men never saw nor heard of it so before. the old Haws hung upon the Hedge till the new ones were ripe & then went both together by the Birds as usual.

30 May 1759 last Night at about 11 o'clock it Snowed very hard and large Flakes & this morning at 8 of Clock all the Hills are covered with Snow from Bow Brickhill Church to Aubrey Bowers past 9, the Snow all gone, the Sun Shines very bright and has don so all this Morning. Ice as thick as a half Crown lay in several Places about the Garden this Morning, particularly on the Cucumber Glasses

Some time before Harvest 1759 the Water being very low I cleaned the Pond in the Yard, the Season has been remarkably fruitfull, frequent gentle Showers but no hasty Rains to fill the Pond with Water it used to stand about a ffoot deep against the upper, Post of the necessary House but it has not reached the Bottom of that Post yet this Mich<sup>s</sup> 1760. October 28 1760 this Morning for first Time the Water stood quite round the Knoll which is as low as it generally stood even in a dry Time.

Dec 5. 1760 Snow all Night the Knoll is now covered with Water. about 1 Inch

1 November 1762

Walking in the Garden this Evening I saw a large Bird sitting upon the End of the Brewhouse, I soon perceived it to be an Eagle before I came to the Garden Gate it pitchd down in to the Yard —& when I came into the Yard I found it sitting up on the Wall over the Well earnestly looking at a Hoggs Pluck which hung upon a Hook against the Wall of the Brewhouse it often endeavoured but could not fix upon it, we took the Pluck down & layd it upon a Tubb which stood there & went to a Small Distance when it flew down to it, & as it was eating William Wilding my Plowman took it by the Wings, we carryed into the House, & then put it into the Alcove which has Doors to it made of Lath, to keep in the old Turkies but wide enough for the young ones to go thro', we gave it the Hoggs-Pluck, which it seized upon immediately, Hunger having made it regardless of everything else when it had Satisfied itself it made its way between the Laths & flew to the wood

This Day a very sharp Frost began, no Snow but very misty almost all the Time it lasted.

Jan 29 a full Moon & it begun to thaw Frost went away very gently but little & gentle Rain, last Summer remarkably dry a few hasty Rains in Autumn, but in general a very dry Season autumn & Winter 1763 Feb 13. Sunday a great Snow fell last Night & all this Day and froze hard. Monday Morning fine & Sun shines bright, Snow about 6 or 7 inches deep on levell Ground, Tuesday Snow very fast. towards Evening Thaw & little Rain, Snow went gently off. Great Floods. The Weather has been misty some months tho butt very little Rain.

March 10 Last Night the wind turnd into the North very cold & a very hard Frost, so that it was impossible to Plow the Land.

16 March a Smart white Frost this morning wind West a fine Day the Frost gon out of the ground & People at Barley Land, no Rain

1763 The Spring very dry, at Midsummer sett in wett the Season remarkably wett till beginning of March

1764 Scarce 2 Days together without Rain except about a Fortnit in Harvest & again at Wheat Seed Time

1763 The latter End of the Year remarkable for mad Dogs all the Country over & so continues March 1764 T Bates had a Cow dyed mad. John Willis had 2 dyed mad.

1764 4 March fell a great snow wch lay above a Week

1765 28 Feb. fell a great Snow in the Lane by the lower Yard it lay almost levell with T. Bates's Close Thursday 7 March. Snow gon enough for People to go to Plow tho still it lies under Hedges &c.

Thursday 13 More Snow the Ground quite coverd

22 March Snow still lies in Ditches notwithstanding great Rains.

25 All the Snow gon tho little Rain these 2 Days

1765 Tuesday 9 July in the afternoon a great Storm of Hail the ground coverd all over like Snow it lay under the House &c near a quarter of a Yard thick in Ditches on the shady side of Houses &c it lay all night the Stones were large.

The Summer has been very dry

1765 Sep 19. on an Elder Tree at Stewkley there are this Day Ripe Berries and Bunches of Flowers full blown as in the Spring.

21 Dec<sup>r</sup> 1765 Planted the Elm Tree upon the Knoll before the Church yard Gate it girt 4 Inches round. (Ed. Note this Tree still flourishing 1906).

14 Jan. 1766 This morning at one o'Clock a Shock of an Earthquake was felt here at Drayton, a little, by my Daughter Molly who lay up one p<sup>r</sup> of Stairs, but much more by Patt, who lay in the Garrett, they heard no Noise, but at Newton a Noise was heard before the Shock, the Noise & Shock were much more violent at Abbots Aston & thereabout, more in the Vale than on any Hills, as it was violent at Buxton, it lighten'd several Times.

About the Beginning of December a Frost fell in there has been a Thaw 2 or 3 Times for some Days but the Frost never quite out of the Ground nor the Ice gon, till now.

Feb 13th it begun to thaw on Saturday Rain yesterday & Rain all Night & this Day but tho it rainsit freezes hard Too for the Trees hang with Icicles, & the Grass looks as if there had fell a small Flight of Snow. The Trees especially the last Years Shoots & the Cutt Hedges look very beautyfull the clear Icicles cover the Trees & Boughs full  $\frac{1}{2}$  Inch thick thro which the different coloured Bark the Cattkins & blossoms of the Nutts look inexpressibly beautyfull. No Hail nor Snow fell & tho the Rain freezes upon the Trees & Grass there is not the least Frost in or on the Ground nor on the Water

There has been so much Rain tho it fell but Gently that the Water in the Pond is full 9 Inches at least deeper than it was all Wednesday morning.—The weight of the Icicles is so great that several Boughs of Trees are broke down with it, we hear them falling all over the Wood, there is a great Quantity of very large Boughs broke down from the large Elms in the Home Close & where the Rooks build, tis nothing like a Rime but clear Ice neither is there anything like a Mist but clear as when it rains, so that I can see Dunstable Downs when the Rain abates, and can all along see Stewkley and Brickhill Hills.—The outside Boughs of the Nutt Trees are bent quite down to the Ground so that the Icicles are quite inverted & the Ends point upwards which adds greatly to the beauty and oddity of the Appearance. The Thatch of the lower Barn makes a most beautyfull Appearance it was new thatched last Summer with Haulm, the Ends dont lye so flatt as threshed Straw, but stand a little hollow from one another & at the end of every Straw is a clear Icicle. The Boughs of the Trees ceased to fall about 9 oclock at Night.

Saturday 15 it has rain'd all night a misty morning & small Rain the Icicles all gon, the Nutt Trees &c have recovered their Place, in Warwickshire Leicestershire and Northamptonshire there was a very deep Snow, the the Snow reech as far as Broughton but there was but little of it there the Icicles were at Wandon & all this Part of the County great Damage done among the old Trees in Woobourn Park and Whaddon Chase and all other Places within the Compas of the Ice, at Bicester there was no Ice nor Snow, at Leighton neither, but little at Stoake the Like was never known before.

in Bagg Coppice in Whaddon Chase 2044 Faggotts of Wood were broke from the Trees Sold at 1£ 1 .. 0 p Hundred in Whitmill Grove 2244.

Several Kites sat upon the Tres in Tatenall Wood their Wings froze to their Tails some Boys disturbed them by throwing at them they picked up 14 and carried them to Robert Taylors keeper in Woodpond Lodge M<sup>r</sup> Lowndes saw 10 alive in Robert Taylors House.

Sunday 23 March 1766.

A great Snow this Morning. Wednesday 26 a very great Snow continued to snow all Day, a poor Boy going Home from Winslow to Hogeston lost against a Gate in Swanbourn new Inclosure near Mount Pleasant House, not found till Fryday Morning when the Snow was wasted it lay very deep on Thursday, in Several Places Stiles were covered & in the plain Ground it was mid legg deep.

Fryday 2 Jan 1767

A Little Snow Monday 5 more snow the Wind high so that the Snow was deep only in places where the Wind blew it up.

fryday 9 great snow all last Night. Sunday 11 Snow all Day no wind Monday 12 Snow on the levell Ground full 11 Inches deep Fryday 16 a little Thaw. but Snow still 8 Inches deep on the level ground on Tuesday 20 & 2 In. deep on the Ridges of the Land a hard Frost ever since Fryday. Wednesday 21 & Thursday 22 Small Rain. Fryday Morning first began to see Land on the Topps of the Ridges of the Lands that lye high Thaw all Day. Saturday little Frost. Saturday 29 Rain in the Afternoon. Sunday Rain, on Monday Snow gon except under Hedges &c Saturday 7 Feb. all the Snow gon it lay in the Ditches on Fryday 8 Feb.

May 1765 cleand the Pond in the Yard carried out above 50 Cart loads of Mudd, on the Lays at the Backsides. 1769 a most excellent cropp of very best grass far better than which was dresd with Horse Dung

7 June 1768 Thunder last Night & all this Day but not violent about 2 in the afternoon a mighty rushing Wind from N to S made a noise not unlike the furious driving of severall Coachs Hail Stones fell about noon as big as Nutmeggs, very violent at Stoke, Newton, & Whaddon Chase so that People got under their Waggons to defend themselves from it having first turnd their Horses loose. Fanny Bandy who nurses one of my madd women was going into the Garden at the Time of the Whirl Wind it took her quite off the Ground & turnd her round.

1769 August towards the latter End very cold Weather. Wheat & Barley well gott in.

A Comet was mentioned in the Papers & seen by some People here on the 1 of September. on Monday Sept 4 between 3 & 4 in the Morning I saw the Comett very near the bright Star in Orion's right Shoulder, the nucleus small not so large as the Star in Orion the Tail very bright & flaming near the Nucleus extended about the Length of S in the Zodiac viz about 30 : it was but narrow. The Tail of the Comet in 1744 was very broad. By the appearance of the Tail of this Comet on Monday 3 Sep. 69 it seemed as if the Comet moved with great Velocity by leaving so sharp & very bright a Tail behind it, since the Comet has appeard the Weather has been remarkably warm rather hott & sultry, tho it has been dull & sometimes heavy & constant Rain.

Saturday morning  $\frac{1}{2}$  past 3 The Comett appeard to be about the same altitude above the Horizon with Venus on or very near the Equinotial Line about the  $98^{\circ}$  East of Aries on the Breast of Manoura, the Tail passd over Orion's Belt but not near so bright & splendid as it was on Monday Morning

The News papers mention the Comet to be on the 1 of Sep 12 from Aldebaran and  $4^{\circ}$  from Bellatrix in Orion's left Shoulder, on the 4 of Sep I observ'd it near Orion's right Shoulder & now on the Saturday 9 Sep it is on Monocaros's Breast about 20 from the Place where I observ'd it on Monday Morning. therefore moves about  $4^{\circ}$  in 24 Hours The Morning was very fine & clear so that the decrease of Brightness in the Tail & the length of the Tail being much less than on Monday prove that the Comet is getting further from the Earth it was first seen near the Pliades.

Sunday Nov. 5. have heard of the return of the Comet some Time I saw it first this Evening about 6. in the west about  $10^{\circ}$  high but so very fair that I could but just discern it.

It is observable that the Distemper among the horned Cattle broke out the Summer after the Comett which appeard in the Spring of the Year 1744 the first appearance of the Distemper was at Newton Longvill soon after Harvest & it is worth observing that tho the Skins of all the Cattle that dyed at Newton were taken off & carried thro Stoke to Leighton that no Cattle fell in Stoke Parish till the Distemper had ceased in Newton for more than a year a like Distemper is now broke out among the hor<sup>d</sup> Cattle in this month of December 1769

1769 the Distemper has not yet extended further than Hamp S.

Oct 24 in the Evening a very great Aurora borealis between 7 and 8 it appeared like a Canopy the streamers red like the Evening about the East round by the North white about the West by South to the East quite open no streamers at all. once the Knott in the Zenith was red. We have had an Aurora borealis almost every clear Night this Autumn more or less tho none equall to this neither was this equal to that in 1727

1769 4. November Saturday Evening about  $\frac{1}{4}$  before 7 I went to the Front Door while I stood to make water, I saw a Meteor very like a small Rockett the Nucleus much about the size of Venus to appearance it did not seem to be high in the Air, The Fire issued from it very bright & in dropps like a Rockett, the Tail seemd about a Yard long its motion was slow, not as quick as a Rockett, it first begun as near as I can guess about the Constellation

Aquila and continued ascending to near the Dragons month & when it went out it did not drop like what we call a falling Starr but seemd to ascend out of Sight.

APPENDIX.

COLE Mss. Vol. 29. Add. Ms. 5830. p. 84.

D<sup>r</sup> Crawley a physician of Dunstable died a bachelor, of drink, Age about 40. He left about two or three hundred per. ann. to M<sup>r</sup>. Lord, Rector of Drayton Parslow his relation, educated at S. John's Cantab. He sold Crawley's house for £800 being part off the site of the Priory.

p. 89. M<sup>r</sup>. Lord succeeded his father in Drayton Rectory of which they have the Advowson, was formerly of Caius Coll. Cantab. but has placed his elder son at Oxford, he has a very numerous family. Since inheriting D<sup>r</sup> Crawley's bequest he has built a very good rectory near the Church.

Add. Ms. 5835

Thursday 24 April 1766. M<sup>r</sup> Hanmer with his son called on me to go with them to dine at Drayton at M<sup>r</sup>. Lord's. The roads horribly bad. M<sup>r</sup> & M<sup>rs</sup>. Lord of Mursley their son dined there, Also M<sup>rs</sup> Banson of Newport Pagnell who had been under M<sup>r</sup> Lord's care for lunacy, he taking many in that way (poor man he is now in the same way himself) and practising physic, having many or all of his cousin D<sup>r</sup> Crawley of Dunstable who died young of too much drinking, and left his estate in Beds to M<sup>r</sup>. Lord, who has occasion enough for it as he has 12 children grown up and hanging upon him with a small living, where he overbuilt himself a too good house on D<sup>r</sup>. C. first leaving him his estate, with an encumbered estate, and his sons not doing the best for themselves.

The eldest he put to New Coll. Schole and entered him of a college, but he had an aversion for the Church and his father's living of Drayton to which he might have succeeded but taking to sporting and the occupation of a poacher, he lived idly with his father and mother of the Alston family and a very fine woman and a proper parson's wife, visiting nowhere and taking care of her family concerns, with whom this eldest son John is no small favourite being a tall handsome good-tempered young fellow, till he was suffered to marry my neighbour Cartwright's sister, the most suitable match that ever was made as in point of tempers, they equally living on horseback in the fields, by the sides of rivers or any where but in their house, which is at Mursley, where their father has established them in a farm, after failing at Baldock in a malting. Another son, William, is of Magdalen Coll. Oxon. and is like to do very well. M<sup>rs</sup>. Banson is sister to my old friend John Maule late Fellow of Kings and widow to M<sup>r</sup> Banson lace buyer of Newport.

Cole also records that in his time Drayton Parslow contained 40 families, 150 souls, 8 were dissenters.
